"If you are fortunate enough, as I am, to be out in the countryside, you'll see these beautiful scenes all over. We just have to look. They are there for us to enjoy. Spring! When the yellow bells, jonquils and daffodils appear, Spring is near." - Bob

Bob Timberlake receives lifetime achievement award!

On February 22, Renowned artist Bob Timberlake received the "lifetime achievement" award from the North Carolina Wildlife habitat Foundation during its seventh annual N.C Wildlife Extravaganza. The NCWHF is a nonprofit conservation organization that works to preserve the state's wildlife habitat for future generations. The NCWHF was founded by Bob's dear friend Eddie Bridges in 1989.
